FOREWORD

THE LOTUS staff of 1945 has given you Peace in this book, in the hope that you may remember your bravest and your happiest moments here and say, "These I have loved."

THE STAFF.

INA MCNAIR AVINGER

DEDICATION

to Ina McNair Avinger

Mrs. Avinger, "Peace girl," Trustee, and former president of the Alumnae Association, has given to Peace her love and loyalty. In 1943 she endowed the Chair of Bible, and through the years she has worked for the advancement of her Alma Mater.

With gratitude for her service and for her belief in the highest ideals of Peace, we dedicate the 1945 Lotus to her.

Dr. W. C. Pressly

Through Dr. Pressly's "open door" policy, we have come to recognize his open-heartedness, his stability, his dignity, and his sincere desire to help each of us become a true Peace girl. We are indeed grateful and indebted to him for his energetic guidance and for his constant display of Christian character—the essence of Peace College life.

Miss May McLelland

We are grateful to our dean for her efficiency and her spontaneous wit. She has devoted herself to the interests of Peace girls, and is always ready to give us advice or help. We shall remember her as a wise counselor and friend.

In Memoriam

JANE CAMPBELL

Born, July 15, 1926 — Died, November 3, 1944

TO Jane Campbell, better known to us as "Janie," Loyal in her devotions to friends, school, church, and work, she truly measured up to the highest standards of a Peace girl.

There was no question of her friendliness. For everyone who knew her she had a smile. She could find and encourage the good in everybody, and she had the ability to settle other people's quarrels and make them happy. Her range of interests was wide. She liked best art, and athletics ran a close second. Among her other hobbies was her collection of perfume which she never used. Boys were put in one big class and given an equal amount of attention. Mail came to her in stacks and was promptly answered. She loved any animal and could hardly pass one on the street without a friendly word or pat.

Jane loved Peace—what it stood for, its buildings, traditions, faculty and students alike—and took an interest in all its activities.

Generous, kind, thoughtful, understanding. No, she is not dead to us—she will live on in our memories as a symbol of what we would like to be.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

PRIVILEGED HONOR ROLL

These girls have shown themselves capable of accepting further responsibilities and therefore special privileges. Intelligence and character are required of those who compose the Privileged Honor Roll.

PI THETA MU

The Pi's year started off with a "bang." The formal opening of the "Pi Theta Mu Night Club" with its ice cream bars, food bars, coke bars, and fun galore, began rush week, which was closed by a thorough toothbrush scrubbing of the front walk. At the lovely candlelight initiation, over fifty-five became members of Pi Theta Mu. Organized for business, the Pi's did their part in the United War Relief Fund and the Sixth War Loan Drive. But let's not forget all the fun we had at the parties—and never the inter-society banquet! It's really no conceit, but just a little "Peace family pride" that makes us feel the Pi's have had a grand year.

RHO DELTA CHI

"Stand up and cheer for Rho Delta Chi." We've had fun this year—standing up for the Rho's. We faced stiff competition from the Sig's and Pi's as we began our year with a race—no more nor less. Our big rush party was a real "Kentucky Derby." We were thrilled at initiation when the new Rho's took their pledges by candlelight; we went all out for fun at the inter-society banquet. We were elated at the end of the United War Fund Drive because the Rho's again this year were the top contributors per person, and we were keyed up thoroughly over all the sports.

SIGMA PHI KAPPA

The year for the Sig's began when the first new girl walked into the halls of Peace and was greeted with "Oh, won't you go Sig"? Next in line was rush week, with its "Dark Town Strutters Ball," followed by the Sixth War Fund Drive and the Sixth War Loan, which Sigma Phi Kappa's enthusiastic girls helped make a success. The impressive formal initiation, the banquet held at the Woman's Club with the other societies, and the friendly competition in sports—these are characteristic events of Sigma Phi Kappa in 1944-45.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The I.R.C., a comparatively new organization at Peace, is one of the most active and enthusiastic. At their regular meetings twice each month, members participate in discussion of current events. The predominant informality and eager intent to learn more about the critical problems of the time stimulate responsive and enlightened discussions.

Miss Sara Merton has been an excellent adviser to the club, stimulating the members by her intelligence and coöperativeness.

ELSIE ROBERTSON ART CLUB

Through the Elsie Robertson Art Club, formed in 1943, Peace girls have had the opportunity to study the principles of art and art appreciation. Under the guidance of Miss Mabel Pugh, the members have cultivated a growing appreciation of this creative activity.

PHI THETA KAPPA

Membership in Phi Theta Kappa, the National Scholastic Honor Society, is limited to the highest ten per cent of the academic student body. Phi Theta Kappa has the same purpose in a junior college as Phi Beta Kappa has in a four-year college. The Gamma Phi Chapter was organized at Peace in 1939.

Margaret Brooks, Martha Jane Pearsall, Dot Swain, Eleanor Craig.

SIGMA PI ALPHA

Sigma Pi Alpha, part of a national honorary language fraternity founded by North Carolina State College, has as its purpose the promotion of interest in foreign lands, customs, and languages. At its meetings the members gain much knowledge about other peoples through talking with and listening to foreigners. Admission is by invitation, which is extended only to those who have high scholastic averages in all fields as well as in languages.

Alpha Pi Epsilon, established at Peace in 1912, is the national honor society for the commercial students. To become a member of this society, a student must have an average of 90 on all subjects.

SCHOLASTIC HONORS

At the close of the first term, scholastic honors were accorded to those Peace students who made all grades of 90 or above, or who made an average of 90 or above on all their courses.

ELEANOR CRAIG
Editor-in-Chief

The prenatal existence of the 1945 LOTUS began last June with the planning of a dummy. During the fall and winter the staff spent hours tracking you down for pictures and used reams of paper writing copy.

In collaboration with our photographer, engraver, printer, art department, Miss Cortner, and the business staff, we selected appropriate clothing for this child and even specified its characteristics. Now that it has been born, we hope you will welcome it with as much pleasure as we present it.

EDITORIAL STAFF

Associate Editors: Margaret Lee Duke, Beth Reed, Dot Swain, Ann Tysor.

Assistant Editors: Barbara Dantzer, Preston Foote, Margaret Marley, Carolyn Neel.

Typing Editor: Hellon Bray.

The art work was done by Miss Mabel Pugh's art classes.

Seated: Dot Swain, Eleanor Craig, Beth Reed, Margaret Lee Duke.
Standing: Preston Foote, Carolyn Neel, Margaret Marley, Barbara Dantzer, Ann Tysor, Hellon Bray.

LOTUS

We, the members of the business staff, were selected according to our interests and scholastic records. Early in the fall we began interviewing business executives, planning trips in the school car, and figuring contracts. Without the help of our adviser, Miss Mary Kirkpatrick, the job could never have been completed. Now that our part in the 1915 Lotus is finished, we are proud and look back with pleasant memories to the fun we have had.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

MARGARET BROOKS
President

P. S. C. A.

"God and one person make a religion, but it takes God and two persons to make Christianity—God and a man and his neighbor."

With over two hundred neighbors in our school, it is the aim of the Peace Student Christian Association to make Christianity a living reality to every girl on the campus. The Cabinet, composed of girls from the Junior and Senior classes, with its faculty adviser, Miss Lucy Steele, is a group united for leadership. Together we live and grow by active participation in daily Morning Watch, Student Vespers Sunday evening, and Hall Prayers every Wednesday night. Planned and led by and for students, these activities are indeed stepping stones to growth. We enjoy most the sings in the Girls' Living Room and the informal fireside discussions led by a counselor in the Cabin. Through valuable experience "we would earnestly strive to be Christlike" and "to seek first the kingdom of God."

Seated: Eleanor Craig, Margaret Brooks, Dickey Ennis, Frances Golden, Gene Nash, Martha J. Pearsall, Miss Steele, Anne Dixon, Margaret Lee Duke.
Standing: Carolyn Neel, Betty Bryan, Nancy Pope, Mary E. Moore.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association is made up of every girl at Peace. Its activities are under the direction of an Athletic Board, which is composed of a president, secretary, and representatives from each of the societies for all the sports. The board supervises the "little store" and promotes an interest in tennis, soccer, hockey, and basketball. Athletic letters are given to those who show skill and interest in active participation in these sports.

TENNIS

Learn that backhand and forehand grip and how to serve properly. Then just try to stop playing, with tournaments to urge you on!

SOCCER

Peace students take to soccer as proverbially as ducks to water. The players are chosen not only because they can dribble, pass, and tackle, but also because they know their way around the field.

A legal hit-and-run game.

Basketball — excitement, suspense, competition, speed.

Keep your eye on that ball!

The modern William Tell.

The tennis of indoor sports.

The little store, where food and friends mean fun.

THE LOTUS OF 1945

As we leave Peace, we shall take with us a common heritage of walks around the fountain, Saturday nights of food and music, and days of defeat and challenge. When all these have become dim memories, the friends we have loved will still come sharply into focus, in the light of experiences we shared at Peace in '45.

Eleanor Craig says that all great people die young and that she doesn't feel so well herself.

Warm breath on my cheek,
Soft touch on my shoulder,
A face pressed close to mine,
Eek! Who let Commodore in here?

THE ALMA MATER

In the heart of Carolina,
 'Neath its skies of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
 Glorious to view.
Classie in her broad proportions,
 Looks she proudly down—
Reared against the arch of heaven,
 With the stars for crown.

Chorus

Lift the chorus, speed it onward;
 Let it never cease;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
 Hail, all hail, to Peace!

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the staff in creating their vision into material form.

Such cooperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete cooperation, we offer unexcelled service.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
